What to do if you have a Complaint

Firstly, we're sorry if our service has fallen below the high standards we set ourselves and that you feel the need to complain. However, we do understand that things do not always go to plan, and so we thank you for giving us the opportunity to understand the problem so that we can do our best to put it right for you and to make sure that a similar problem does not occur again in the future.

We take all complaints seriously and will act to resolve them as quickly as we can.

Tell us what's happened

If your complaint relates to your finance agreement with us, then please contact us directly.

The more you can tell us about the circumstances of the complaint, the quicker we will be able to investigate those concerns.

Please provide us with your name, address and finance agreement reference number (this 8 digit number can be found on your Agreement document and in other correspondence we send you). Please tell us what you would like us to do put things right for you.

If you're unhappy with the goods or services supplied to you and financed by us, you should contact the supplier in the first instance. If you remain unhappy with their response, please contact us and we will look into the matter for you.

Ways to contact us

The easiest way to contact us is via email to:- hello@buyline.co.uk

If you would prefer to write to us, please address your letter to:-

Compliance Manager
Buyline Ltd

Telephone: 03330 230 134 (calls to this number are charged at the same rate as 01 or 02 numbers)

What we will do

We will aim to resolve your complaint within five working days. Where this isn't possible, for example where we need to talk to the supplier of the goods or services, we will contact you to give you an update and let you know when you can expect a full response.

We will keep you regularly informed of our progress and, once we have investigated the circumstances of your complaint, we will write to you to let you know the outcome of our investigations. This is called a “final response”.

If we haven't been able to resolve your complaint within eight weeks of receipt, we will write to you to let you know what next steps you can take.

What to do if you are still unhappy

If you are not satisfied with our response, or eight weeks have passed since you first contacted us about your complaint, you may be able to ask the Financial Ombudsman Service to review your complaint.

Some of our products are not within the jurisdiction of the Financial Ombudsman Service and this means that the Financial Ombudsman Service may not be able to consider your complaint. If this applies to your complaint you will not be able to ask the Financial Ombudsman Service to review your complaint. However, our Compliance Team will review your complaint if you remain unhappy.

The Financial Ombudsman Service

The Financial Ombudsman Service is an independent and impartial service for consumers to help resolve disputes with financial firms.

If you decide to take your complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service, you must do so within six months of the date of our final response as the Financial Ombudsman Service may not consider any complaint made after that time.

We hope you won't need to contact the Financial Ombudsman Service, but if you do, you can contact them at:-
